

Delta Air Lines 2nd Weekly Frequency and Year-Round Service

Delta Airlines adds 2nd weekly frequency from Minneapolis and extends Boston flight to year-round service

ORANJESTAD – Aruba Airport Authority N.V. (AAA) is pleased to announce Delta Air Lines' 2nd weekly frequency between Minneapolis and Aruba for the upcoming mid-winter season in 2019. Delta Air Lines will now be servicing 2x weekly seasonal frequencies from MSP – AUA. The 2nd Minneapolis flight starts on February 19th, 2019 and will continue until March 26th, 2019, adding a total of 960 seats for the winter period. The new route will be operated by a B737-800 on Tuesdays. Flights to MSP on Saturdays will be operated by a B757 starting on December 22nd, 2018 and will operate until March 30th, 2019.

Additionally, Delta's current non-stop weekly seasonal flight from Boston originally scheduled for the winter season 2018 – 2019, will now be operated year-round. The new weekly flight flying out of Boston to Aruba will start on Saturday, December 22nd, 2018 and will be operated by a B737-900 type aircraft and has a capacity of 180 seats.

“This is exciting news, with Delta's decision to add the additional service from Minneapolis, and the now year-round service from Boston, visitors and locals will now have additional quality options to travel to and from our beautiful sunny island”, said AAA's CEO Mr. James Fazio.
